

Cathy Dunlap
Senior Commissioner's
Representative
Northern California

Cathy Dunlap, is the IRS Senior Commissioner's Representative (SCR) with incident and emergency management oversight for 19 offices in Northern California. She is the designated "Head of Office" with delegated authority from the Commissioner of IRS to make decisions on the safety and security of IRS employees and property. She represents IRS in Interagency Affairs and local labor relations matters.

She currently serves as the 1st Vice Chair of the San Francisco Federal Executive Board and serves on the policy committee. She was formally FEB, CFC, and FEYA Chair for the SF Bay Area.

She has been a Certified Mediator for over 10 years – supporting the Department of Treasury, the FEB Shared Neutral Programs and multiple other federal agencies. She held positions of Chief Labor Relations and as a specialist in Staffing and Classification. She was formerly Chief, Security and Administrative Officer for IRS, Northern, CA. She initiated the first AIMS Chapter in the Phoenix District and served as the Special Emphasis Program Manager and Recruitment Coordinator for the Phoenix, AZ and Albuquerque, NM Districts.

Cathy was born in Indiana and was a graduate of Indiana University with a BS Degree in Administration and Business Management.