

CONTRACT CHANGES, DISPUTES & TERMINATIONS—MASTERING THE FUNDAMENTALS

PRESENTED BY THE:

Golden Gate Chapter

ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

Every attendee will receive a copy of the Contract Changes, Disputes & Terminations and its accompanying workbook.

“Contract Changes, Disputes, and Terminations—Mastering the Fundamentals” is a one-day National Education Seminar (NES) designed to provide the information you need to handle any and all ambiguities, differences of opinion, or potential and real conflicts between the parties. These can arise by verbal discussion, letter, the proposal, the basic contract, or any of its subsequent modifications. They can involve everything from the interpretation of the statement of work to the minutes of a meeting. Changes can also come from various sources—some with the authority to make them and sometimes not. They can also impact the success of your contract as well as the relationship between the parties.

SPEAKER:

Don Shannon

COURSE OUTLINE:

- What constitutes a change,
- How changes arise,
- Who is authorized to issue and respond to changes and how to respond,
- The various actions to be taken to successfully incorporate changes both parties agree to, including the next steps when agreement is not forthcoming; and
- Knowing when and how to expect contract changes, as well as disagreement.
