

Disaster Assistance – Wildfires in New Mexico, Utah and Other States

The following information is a list of resources that may be available to address issues that wildfire victims in New Mexico, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and other states may face. Check with the individual organizations to verify availability.

Local Resources

New Mexico Fire Information

<http://nmfireinfo.com>

Fire Restrictions Hotline, 877-864-6985

Utah Fire Information

<http://www.utahfireinfo.gov/>

See website for contacts by area or region

Nevada Division of Emergency Management

<http://dem.state.nv.us/>

775-687-0300, or in an emergency 775-687-0400

Arizona Interagency Wildfire Prevention and Information

<http://www.azfireinfo.az.gov/>

Fire Restrictions Hotline, 877-864-6985

Federal Ongoing General Support and Financial Aid

Federal Emergency Management Assistance (FEMA)

<http://www.fema.gov>

800-621-FEMA (3362)

800-462-7585 TTY

After emergencies, individuals in shelters and those who have returned home can look to available federal assistance through FEMA to aid them in their recovery. FEMA-coordinated assistance can include grants to help pay for temporary housing, home repairs and other serious disaster-related expenses. Federal programs available provide basic shelter and personal property needs. They are not intended as a substitute for insurance. Vacation and secondary homes are not eligible for this assistance.

Charitable Organizations

The Salvation Army

<http://www.salvationarmy.org>

800-SAL-ARMY

Catholic Charities

www.catholiccharitiesusa.org/NetCommunity

703-549-1390

Each year Catholic Charities serve over 9 million people regardless of their religious, social or economic backgrounds. If you need help or want more information about your local agency, use the dropdown to select your state. Please note that many Catholic Charities agencies have branch and satellite offices throughout the area they serve. If the main office that is listed for your area is far from where you live, the agency may have other offices closer to you. Contact one of the offices within your state for information on other locations.

Episcopal Relief & Development

www.er-d.org/

800-334-7626, Ext. 5129

Episcopal Relief & Development is the international relief and development agency of the Episcopal Church. Together with the worldwide Church and ecumenical partners, Episcopal Relief & Development rebuilds after disasters and empowers people by offering lasting solutions that fight poverty, hunger and disease, including HIV/AIDS and malaria.

Lutheran Disaster Response

<http://www.ldr.org>

800-638-3522

Recovery from disaster takes years, not days or weeks. Lutheran Disaster Response is modeled on the concept of long-term recovery and meeting the unmet needs of those affected. LDR coordinators and volunteers bring great help to those who have suffered great loss. In turn, they meet disaster survivors filled with hope and perseverance.

United Jewish Communities (UJC)

www.ujc.org

There are humanitarian emergencies all over the world affecting Jews and non-Jews alike. Jewish Federations of North America and its partners take seriously their ethical responsibility to ensure the welfare of all people.

National Voluntary Organization Active in Disaster (NVOAD)

www.nvoad.org

703-778-5088

National Voluntary Organization Active in Disaster coordinates planning efforts by many voluntary organizations responding to disaster.

Resources Are Available

Additional information, self-help tools and other resources are available online at www.FOH4YOU.com. Or call us for more information, help and support. Counselors are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week to provide confidential assistance at no cost to you.

Employee Assistance Program

We Care, Just Call

1-800-222-0364

1-888-262-7848 TTY Users

www.FOH4YOU.com