

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration
Services

USCIS San Francisco District Office

Human Trafficking Engagement

Ronald V. Dellums Federal Building (Auditorium)

1301 Clay Street, Oakland CA 94612

Thursday — January 19th, 8:30 am—3:30 pm

RSVP

Please RSVP by Jan. 12

D2I-SMB-SFRrsvp@uscis.dhs.gov

Include your Name, Organization, and Title

Serving the Survivors of Trafficking and Violence - Top Reasons to Attend

You work with immigrants every day. You see their needs. Join us in learning about the signs of human trafficking, the immigration benefits and services available to support these survivors. Representatives from Bay Area federal partners, local government and NGOs are coming together to share with you the latest resources for our customers. Let's do this together!

- Techniques to identify and work with victims of trafficking and violence
- Immigration benefits for victims, including U and T visas and certifications
- Resources available to support victims
- Panel discussion on best practices
- Networking with like-minded advocates
- 6.5 hours of MCLE credits available by AILA NorCal*

Speakers & Panelists

- Marianna Warmee, Federal Administrative Judge & Chair, SF-Collaborative Against Human Trafficking
- Lynette Parker, Katharine & George Alexander Community Law Center, Santa Clara University
- Leah Chen Price, Asian Pacific Islander Legal Outreach
- Dan Roisman, Alameda County District Attorney's Office
- Lisa Newstrom, Bay Area Legal Aid
- Jennifer Tse, Dept. of Labor, Wage and Compliance Division
- Robin Foemmel Bie, California Victim Compensation Program
- Sharan Dhanoa, South Bay Coalition to End Human Trafficking
- Ben Horton, ICE/HSI
- Representatives from USCIS

*AILA NorCal is a State Bar of California approved provider. CLE credit does not include legal ethics, elimination of bias, or competence issues.

or

Event Partner: SFFEB

www.uscis.gov www.dhs.gov/blue-campaign

